23rd October 2022

FIRST READING Sir 35:12-14, 16-18

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

The Lord is a judge who is no respecter of personages. He shows no respect of personages to the detriment of a poor man, he listens to the plea of the injured party. He does not ignore the orphan's supplication, nor the widow's as she pours out her story. The man who with his whole heart serves God will be accepted, his petitions will carry to the clouds. The humble man's prayer pierces the clouds, until it arrives he is inconsolable nor will he desist until the Most High takes notice of him, acquits the virtuous and delivers judgement. And the Lord will not be slow, nor will he be dilatory on their behalf.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

(R.) The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad. (R.)

2. The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth. The just call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress. (R.)

3. The Lord is close to the broken-hearted; those whose spirit is crushed he will save.

The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants. Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. (R.)

SECOND READING

2 Tm 4:6-8, 16-18

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing.

The first time I had to present my defence, there was not a single witness to support me. Every one of them deserted me – may they not be held accountable for it. But the Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself;
and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Lk 18:9-14

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus spoke the following parable to some people who prided themselves on being virtuous and despised everyone else, 'Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood there and said this prayer to himself, "I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like the rest of mankind, and particularly that I am not like this tax collector here. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get." The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." This man, I tell you, went home again at rights with God; the other did not. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'

St Luke's community thank Fr Emmanuel Ayankudy and Fr Anto Francis, who will continue to celebrate Sunday and Friday masses here at St Luke's.

HYMNS

ENTRANCE

Lift Up Your Hearts

Antiphon:

Lift up your hearts to the Lord
Praise God's gracious mercy!
Sing out your joy to the Lord,
Whose love is enduring.

Shout with joy to the Lord, all the earth!
Praise the name above all names!
Say to God "How wondrous your works,
How glorious your name!"

Let the earth worship, singing your praise.
Praise the glory of your name!
Come and see the deeds of the Lord;
Bless God's holy name!

COMMUNION

Gather Us In

Here in this place new light is streaming,
Now is the darkness vanished away.
See in this space
Our fears and our dreamings,
Brought here to you in the light of this day.
Gather us in the lost and forsaken,
Gather us in the blind and the lame;
Call to us now, and we shall awaken,
We shall arise at the sound of our name.

Here we will take the wine and the water,
Here we will take the bread of new birth,
Here you shall call
Your sons and your daughters,
Call us anew to be salt for the earth.
Give us to drink the wine of compassion,
Give us to eat the bread that is you;
Nourish us well, and teach us to fashion
Lives that are holy and hearts that are true.

RECESSIONAL

A New Heart for a New World

Refrain:

Create a new heart, Holy Lord,
Beckon our lives through your word,
Open our eyes to your call,
United as one for your world.
Heighten our minds to your thoughts,
Heal us of pride and of hurt,
May we go forth in your name
We pray our hearts change.

The heart of the cross, lowly and poor, Calls us on.
Lord, it is you promising hope,
Promising truth.

Restless, the hearts
Who yearn for your peace in this land.
Deepen the dream justice brings life,
Justice redeems.

May your week ahead be blessed.

NOTICES

Dear friends,

Last weekend we conducted our annual Catholic Mission Appeal. One example of the missionary Church supported by Catholic Mission is the Church in Ethiopia: Subsistence farming is the way of life for millions of people in Ethiopia. Yet, persistent drought and increasing food prices result in many experiencing health problems due to a lack of nutritious food.

Distressingly, 70% of families in the town of Emdibir are unable to put enough food on the table.

Helping with the practicalities that make life possible is at the core of missionary outreach. Giving to those most in need is a sign of compassion and witnesses to the commandment in love. Catholic Mission is partnering with the local Church in Emdibir to finance a goat farm to help reduce the risk of child mortality in the community due to malnutrition.

2022 is the 200th anniversary of Pauline Jaricot starting the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in Lyon, France. Pauline Jaricot's was beatified on the 22nd May 2022 in Lyon. Pauline is a wonderful example and witness of God's love.

Pauline Marie Jaricot was born on 22 July 1799 into a family of rich Lyon silk merchants. After hearing a Lenten homily against worldly vanities, the then 17 year old experienced a radical conversion, abandoning the worldliness of her previous life, and began to visit and take care of the poor.

In 1820, Pauline received a letter from her brother Phileas, a student at the Seminary of St. Sulpice, in which he explained the needs of the members of the Paris Foreign Missions Society. Pauline gathered the workers in her father's factory into groups of ten to donate a sou (a penny/cent) to support foreign missions. Each participant would then recruit another 'ten'. The 'tens' become 'hundreds' and eventually gathered momentum beyond Lyon. The Society was formally approved in 1822. Your support from this appeal will make a difference to those in less fortunate circumstances than our own. Fr Anthony Mellor

If you missed a Catholic Mission Appeal envelope last weekend, please pick one up today. If you take it home, you can return it next Sunday via the collection. Thank you for your support.

60TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY
We congratulate Gloria and Armando Sanchez on their 60th wedding anniversary. Family members join us today to celebrate this joyous occasion. May you have many more years of good health and blessings.

THE ORDER OF MASS

THE INTRODUCTORY RITES

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

PENITENTIAL ACT

Brethren (brothers and sisters), let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

I confess to you almighty God and to you my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault (striking the breast)
therefore I ask the blessed Mary ever-virgin, all the angels and saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

Amen.

GLORIA (when spoken)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, (all bow) who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty, from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

AFTER THE PREFACE

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

THE MYSTERY OF FAITH

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection, until you come again.

THE CONCLUDING RITES

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.
May almighty God bless you the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Go forth, the Mass is ended.

Thanks be to God
