FIRST READING Ex 19:2-6

A reading from the book of Exodus

From Rephidim the Israelites set out again; and when they reached the wilderness of Sinai, there in the wilderness they pitched their camp; there facing the mountain Israel pitched camp.

Moses then went up to God, and the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Say this to the House of Jacob, declare this to the sons of Israel, "You yourselves have seen what I did with the Egyptians, how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. From this you know that now, if you obey my voice and hold fast to my covenant, you of all the nations shall be my very own, for all the earth is mine. I will count you a kingdom of priests, a consecrated nation."

SECOND READING Rom 5:6-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

We were still helpless when at his appointed moment Christ died for sinful men. It is not easy to die even for a good man – though of course for someone really worthy, a man might be prepared to die – but what proves that God loves us is that Christ died for us while we were still sinners. Having died to make us righteous, is it likely that he would now fail to save us from God's anger? When we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, we were still enemies; now that we have been reconciled surely we may count on being saved by the life of his Son? Not merely because we have been reconciled but because we are filled with joyful trust in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have already gained our reconciliation.

GOSPEL Mt 9:36 – 10:8

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

When Jesus saw the crowds he felt sorry for them because they were harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest.'

He summoned his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits with power to cast them out and to cure all kinds of diseases and sickness.

These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, the one who was to betray him. These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them as follows:

'Do not turn your steps to pagan territory, and do not enter any Samaritan town; go rather to the lost sheep of the House of Israel. And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand. Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out devils. You received without charge, give without charge.'

150th Anniversary of the Cathedral of St Stephen The Archbishop has launched a year of celebration for the 150th anniversary of the Opening and Blessing of the Cathedral of St. Stephen. There will be a number of celebrations throughout the next twelve months.

This month of June we will be celebrating the story of Ordinations in the Cathedral. Parishioners are invited to attend 10am Mass on Wednesday, June 28th, at the Cathedral as we celebrate and acknowledge all those who have been ordained in the Cathedral throughout its history. Archbishop Coleridge will preside and refreshments will be provided afterwards. Come along and give thanks for the gift of service of the ordained ministers of our local church.

A note from Sr Sonia

Since not all of us are able to attend the important meeting on 27 June, there will be an opportunity following Mass today, Sunday 18 June, to gather in the church to offer your thoughts about the current situation and future needs of our parish. These contributions will be recorded and presented to the 27 June gathering by our representative/s who will attend in person. I hope you are able to attend one of these meetings to voice your opinions. With every blessing, Sonia.

HYMNS

ENTRANCE

All The Earth Proclaim The Lord

Antiphon:

All the earth proclaim the Lord,
Sing your praise to God.

Serve you the Lord, hearts filled with gladness.
Come into His presence singing for joy!

We are the sheep of His green pasture.
For we are His people; He is our God.

Our Lord is good, with love enduring;
God's word is abiding now with us all.

Responsorial Psalm

We are his people:
The sheep of his flock.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.
The kingdom of God is near;

Repent and believe in the Good News.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

OFFERTORY

Seek, O Seek the Lord

Antiphon:

Seek, O seek the Lord, while he is near;
Trust him, speak to him in prayer,
And he will hear.

God, be with us in our lives,
Direct us in our calling;
Break the snares the world contrives,
Keep us from falling.

God, increase in us the life
That Christ by dying gave us:
Though we faint in mortal strife
His blood will save us.

Strengthen in our hearts the love
We owe to one another;
How can we love God above
And not our brother?

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

We proclaim your Death, O Lord,
and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

COMMUNION

Eagle's Wings!

Refrain:

I have carried you on eagle's wings!
I will care for you in all your years!

My heart is full of peace;
You have been within my life!
Your guiding hand has always covered me!
I am full of confidence in You!

My soul is like a child,
Cradled safe within your arms!
You have carried me across my years!
Leading me thru' sorrow and thru' joy!

Never need I be afraid!
No matter how uncertain things may be!
Sometimes thru' me,
Sometimes in spite of me,
You seem to find Your purpose in my life!

RECESSIONAL

Go Now, You Are Sent Forth

Go now, you are sent forth
To live what you proclaim,
To show the world you follow Christ,
In fact, not just in name.

Go now, you are sent forth
As God's ambassador,
By serving Him in those we meet
We love him more and more.

Go now, you are sent forth
And Christ goes with you, too.
Today you help His kingdom come
In everything you do.

Blessings for the week
ahead.

NOTICES

Dear friends,

The year of celebration for the 150th anniversary of the Cathedral continues to unfold. One the eve of the Feast of Sts. Peter and Paul, we will be acknowledging the Sacrament of Holy Orders which have been celebrated in the Cathedral since its opening in 1874. Archbishop Mark Coleridge will preside at the 10am on Wednesday, 28th June and you are invited to be part of this celebration and gather in thanksgiving for the service and ministry of the many ordained ministers who have served the local church of Brisbane generously and faithfully across 150 years.

Fr Martin Mulhall was the first priest ordained in the new St Stephen's Cathedral in 1877. This was the fourth ordination in Brisbane, with the previous three all being ordained in, what is now, St. Stephen's Chapel.

Bishop Robert Dunne, the second bishop of Brisbane was the first episcopal consecration in St. Stephen's in 1882. Therefore, there is a long history of the Sacrament of Holy Orders being part of the history of this Cathedral. During the course of the next 12 months or so, we will have celebrations for marriages, sacraments of Initiation, memorial for the faithful departed and other events to commemorate the liturgical life of the Cathedral.

Fr. Anthony (Dean of the Cathedral of St Stephen)
